INDONESIAN TEXTILE TREASURES, A LIVING LEGACY

A special exhibit featuring more than 100 Indonesian textiles ranging from historical artifacts to contemporary pieces, including rare textiles from the Jakarta Textile Museum, never before shown in the US. The exhibit is curated by Curtis and Margaret Keith Clemson. Most of the collection on display is for sale.

ABOUT THE SHOW

80 International dealers exhibiting textiles, tribal arts, exceptional artifacts, objects and art displayed for sale in a museum-like setting, with daily lectures included in admission.

SPIRIT TALKERS

This exhibit features new paintings by James Havard. Havard's new works are figural but focus on what is unseen. His paintings are in collections of contemporary art museums in the US.

Presented by John Molloy
